Notice

Attention, please! Our school students meeting is going to hold an activity on exchanging old books in the school library at 9:00 a.m. this Saturday All the students in our school can take part in it.

As we all know, reading books is good for both our lives and study. We can gain plenty of knowledge from books. By exchanging our old books, we can develop the good habit of saving, enhance the sense of protecting the environment, read more different books, and even make new friends who are fond of reading like us. We can exchange text books, storybooks, art books and so no.

What a meaningful activity! What are you waiting for ? Come and join us!
